The Markets.

GRAIN.—The wheat nurket for the past week has been unusually unsteady. That Chicago corner of Keene and his clique has been heavily unloading the stock they have been accumulating since hast October, and this has had a strong tendency to lower prices. The aprend of yellow fever over a large area of the south and destroying business there, has the same ten-dency. Everything considered there is mighty little doubt but that the price of wheat is bound to go up so soon as the precent flurry is ower. So great, however, is the uncertainty now is the wheat market, that farmers should be cautions
in speculating; wheat closed at sec. corn 35c.
CATTLE.—Trade has ruled fatrly active and firm, with slight advances noticeable. Common half-fat cattle met with no special favor, still half-fat cattle met with no special favir, still the market on all descriptions was more active and the general feeiing was a little stronger. Good to choice $4.25 a $4.25.

HOGS.—The run and demand have both been light. Butcher grades $3.40 a $2.76.
